Mrs. Frisby and the Rats of NIMH

By Robert C. O'Brien

Mrs. Frisby, a widowed mouse with small children, is faced with a terrible problem. She must move her family to their summer quarters immediately or face almost certain death.

My Teacher Is an Alien

By Bruce Coville

Susan can tell that her new substitute teacher is really weird. She doesn't know how weird until she catches him peeling off his face!

Alice's Adventures in Wonderland

By Lewis Carroll

Alice catches sight of a White Rabbit in a waistcoat! She tries to follow him down the hole and an adventure like no other follows!

The Black Stallion

By: Walter Farley

From an Arabian seaport to a New York farm, Alec and a black stallion—called simply "the Black"—form a relationship that will captivate you!

Horses

By: Seymore Simon

What animal can run fast, weigh more than 2,000 pounds, sense emotions by smell, and wear shoes? Why, a horse, of course!

Because of Winn-Dixie

By Kate DiCamillo

This is a heartwarming story about a girl and her dog. Opal, a 10 year old, started her adventure when she moved to Naomi, FL at the beginning of the summer.
