

No Soliciting Policy:

It is the policy of the Kent County Public Library that members of the public may not petition, solicit, hand out, or distribute literature or leaflets, canvass, or make similar types of appeals in libraries or on library property. Rare exceptions, under unusual circumstances only, may be made for specific library or county projects with the express approval of the Library Director.

Approved by the Board of Trustees December 7, 2009