

Prospective Student Trustee Profile

The Kent County Public Library Board of Trustees, in consideration of prospective new Student Trustees, will use the following information in evaluating applicants. It is the Board of Trustees responsibility, consistent with the Maryland Code regarding public libraries, to select new Trustees on the basis of character, ability, enthusiasm, and demonstrated interest in library matters. Successful applicants will be residents of Kent County and enrolled in a junior year or senior year high-school level educational program, and in good academic standing.
